

SJSWCD Bio for Joe McAnarney

Joe McAnarney is a retired architect with over 40 years' experience in land planning, design, and codes. With a career based on smart growth and planning that balances development and conservation, Joe will advocate for best practices toward achieving water quality and soil conservation, toward achieving the best in quality of life, and toward promoting the health, safety, and welfare for all residents in St. Johns County.

Term: 2018-2022